Web Development Experience

See all of my projects at ikebischof.com

I have designed, built, and tested many solo web projects from scratch with plain Javascript, HTML, and CSS, as well as React and NextJS.

These projects required extensive testing for cross-browser compatibility, cross-device compatibility, and mobile support.

Worksheet Browser (learn more about this)

- A website for browsing math worksheets, built in React
- Optimized the website to be smooth, stable, and easy to use on all devices
- Designed the website to accommodate workplace needs at Seriously Addictive Mathematics
